

Redemptorist Schools of Baton Rouge

The Redemptorist Schools of Baton Rouge form a Catholic community building leaders for the 21st century

January 13, 2012

Dear Members of the Redemptorist Community:

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that Mr. John Sanders has indicated he will not return as principal of Redemptorist High School for the 2012-2013 academic year.

Mr. Sanders has been at RHS for 25 years, contributing to Redemptorist through that time in numerous roles. Starting as an English teacher in 1985, Mr. Sanders has countless students who name him as the best teacher they ever had. For several years he served as the Dean of Students, and three years ago began service as principal. Mr. Sanders is dearly loved and appreciated for his congeniality and his ever-present willingness to step up and help someone in need, and for that reason he will be missed.

The search for a new principal will begin shortly following the policies and procedures of the Diocese of Baton Rouge. We expect to announce the new principal by the end of this academic year.

Redemptorist is a school with a proud tradition since its founding in 1947. Thank you for your continued support and prayers.

Sincerely,

Brian R. Menard
Administrative Head of Schools
